of love,
There followe drop an hour their load
Toss in a woman's clasp, a lover's fold,
Touch with word
And hand groups hand and soul finds Often,
Share wealth of souls for poverty
Hearts are fed;
And whither leads are they; where
The wild,
A place where kindly, helpful words
Jones,
With answer meet; pure, nobler
To save the patient, listening world
Over long Whose aim is toward the stars; who Stand and speak,
The class of persons, great and Known
What is a woman's clasp? a meeting

"What is a Woman's Club? A meeting ground

For those of purpose, great and broad and strong,

Whose aim is toward the stars; who ever long

To make the patient, listening world resound

With sweeter music; purer, nobler tones.

A place where kindly, helpful words are said,

And kindlier deeds are done; where
hearts are fed;

Where wealth of brain for poverty atones.

And hand grasps hand and soul finds touch with soul

This is a Woman's Club, a haven fair, Where toilers drop an hour their load of care."

COLLECT

Keep us, O God, from pettiness, let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault finding, and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self-pity and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid.

Let us take time for all things; make us grow calm, serene and gentle.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are as one.

And may we strive to touch and to know the great common woman's heart of us all; and O Lord God, let us not forget to be kind.

Mary Stuart.
